

Galaxy Garrison Amusement Machine

Kids and adults alike will love the addictive action of the Galaxy Garrison Bopper Machine. The familiar machines and short game time make having just one more go too tempting.

With Galaxy Garrison, players can test the speed of their hands and see if they can hold off an alien invasion. The bright colours and exciting sound effects make this a quick and intense game that kids and adults will no doubt want to have another go at.

Players can even take it in turns to see who's the best at fending off the aliens.
