

Hank's Ice Cream Van Kiddie Ride

With Hank's Ice Cream Van Kiddie Ride, kids can hop in and help Hank sell ice cream and ice lollies on a busy summer day. This exciting ride will keep children entertained and their parents on site for longer.

The ride can seat two children, allowing them to take on the role of either van driver or ice cream server. The driver navigates the streets while the child in the back has a range of buttons to press that serve customers vanilla, strawberry or chocolate ice cream or ice lollies.

A number of different sound effects are made when the buttons are pressed to keep kids entertained for the duration of the ride and keen to have another go.
